

Dreaded An Operation More Than Anything

Tried Fruitola and Traxo and Has Never Since Been Troubled With Gall-stones.

MRS. MARY E. FRANSE

Mrs. Mary E. Franse, whose address is West Point, Nebr., Box 411, has written to the Pinus laboratories a very strong endorsement of Fruitola and Traxo. In her letter, Mrs. Franse says: "About ten years ago I was about to undergo an operation for gall-stones when I heard of your medicine. Dreading an operation above everything I determined to try Fruitola and Traxo and have never been sorry I did so, as I have never been troubled with gall-stones since."

Fruitola is a powerful lubricant for the intestinal organs, and one dose is usually sufficient to give ample evidence of its efficacy. It softens the congested masses, disintegrates the hardened particles that occasion so much suffering, and expels the accumulated waste to the intense relief of the patient. Following a dose of Fruitola, Traxo should be taken three or four times a day in order to rebuild and restore the system that has been weakened and run down by constant suffering. It is a splendid tonic, acting on the liver and stomach most beneficially.

The long'ing to get away from the heated towns to the shade of trees, and the sound of running water, is making the picnic very popular. A large number of young people chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Watkins, and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Aull went to the Seneca river Tuesday afternoon, and had their lunch on the banks of that cool stream and returned by moonlight.
Miss Emma Newton, who makes her home with her sister, Mrs. Charles Foggs, gave her Sunday school class an all day picnic, which was greatly enjoyed by the little people. A branch fireing at the foot of the lawn was a particular source of pleasure, as all who remember their childhood days, can well understand.
Mrs. Ralph Watkins invited her pupils to a charming moonlight party. They drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hall where a hearty welcome and many big water melons awaited them. They had several happy hours, and came home in the cool of the evening.
The Fortnightly Club met at the home of Miss Ida McCrary, who, though a young girl, is a very clever and she made an admirable hostess.
There are many things planned for the future if the weather continues good. A delightful rain this afternoon did a long felt want. The vegetation was showing the need of it.

Traveling Man's Experience.
"In the summer of 1888 I had a very severe attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me from four a. m. to 6 p. m. without giving me any relief and then told me they did not expect me to live; that I had best telegraph for my family. Instead of doing so, I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and take no substitute. I took a double dose according to directions and went to sleep after the second dose. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point, a well man, but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H. W. Ireland, Louisville, Ky. Obtainable everywhere.

CHARLIE WHITE.
Mrs. Francis E. Brewer, vice-president of the College League of Equal Suffrage of New York, is the greatest woman who ever got into a ring, according to Charley White, Chicago's great lightweight, and Kid Lewis, best of that class in Great Britain. Old New York fight fans and promoters agree with them.
Mrs. Brewer, on the invitation of the St. Nicholas Athletic club of New York, agreed to make a speech on woman suffrage from the ring in which White and Lewis were to box. Some 1,500 fight fans greeted her.
A reporter sat just beneath the velvet-covered ropes at which Mrs. Brewer stood. He listened his sharp-est and he is prepared to affirm, if necessary, that the following is a complete and accurate record of the speech:
"Members of the St. Nicholas Athletic club—
"Put on the fight!"
"I am here tonight!"
"What's your weight?"
"You will understand what a pleasure it is—
"A little order, please" from Mr. Humphries, the announcer.
"To help us get our amendment—
"Get a telephone!"
"To the Constitution!"
"Hoo, hoo! Hoo, hoo!"
"To be voted on!"
(Much ringing of the gong and much waving of the hands by Mr. Humphries.)
"Next November. We"—
"Have a good cigar, gents."
"In the legislature!"
"Put on the NEXT bout!" Mr. Humphries: "There'll be no more till she gets through, so you might as well keep quiet."
"There were sixty members!"
"(Stamp, stamp, stamp, the boys are stamping! Cheer up, boys, she'll soon be through.)
"When I tell you"—
"(Stamp, stamp, stamp!)
"I know that"—
"(Stamp, stamp, stamp!)
"So if you will only"—
"(Stamp, stamp, stamp!)
"You've been very good"—
"(Stamp, stamp, stamp!)
"And I thank you"—
"(Stamp, stamp, stamp!)
"Good night!"
"Well, anyway, she's a lot gamer than many fighters I have seen in this ring, figs," said Mr. Humphries.
